

In the spirit of the Second Eve, we honour many women Saints as role models of Christian service to the Lord — role models for all people — women and men alike.

Through the prayers of the most-holy Mother of God; of Saint Mary Magdalene and the other Myrrh-bearing women; of Saint Photini, the Samaritan woman at the well; of Saint Thecla the first woman martyr; of the holy women martyrs Barbara, Kyriaki, Euphemia, Paraskevia, Catherine, and all the women martyrs; of our venerable mothers Taïsia, Pelagia, Theodosia, Anastasia, Eupraxia, Fevronia, Theodulia, Euphrosinia, Mary of Egypt, and all the holy women monastics; of the Holy Empress Helena of Constantinople, the Holy Great Princess Ol'ha of Kyivan Rus', the Holy Princess Juliana of Olshansk, along with all the holy royal women; and of all our holy mothers in the faith — may our Lord Jesus Christ make us all dedicated servants to His Holy Will, loving and respecting all people, men and women alike, and may He have mercy on us and save us, for He is Good and the Friend of all Mankind.

Published by the Office of Missions and Education
Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada
www.uocc.ca

OMEUOCC.SRS2.3.2002

A PRAYER TO THE MOTHER OF GOD

Accept from us Your unworthy servants, O Lady all-powerful for good — immaculate and sovereign Mother of God, these honourable gifts, which can be offered only to You, who are the one chosen out of all generations, and who has become higher than all creation, heavenly and earthly. For through You the Lord of Powers was with us, and through You we came to know the Son of God, and were granted His holy Body and most pure Blood. Therefore You are blessed by all generations, the Favored-one of God, more radiant than the Cherubim, and more honorable than the Seraphim.

And now, O all-hymned Lady — most holy Theotokos, cease not to pray for us, Your unworthy servants, to be delivered from every subtle snare of the evil one, and from all besetting sins, and preserve us unharmed from every poisonous temptation of the devil. But preserve us to the end uncondemned by Your prayers. For saved by Your help and protection, we send up glory, praise, thanksgiving and adoration for all, to the One God, in Trinity and Creator of all, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

— from the Canon of Supplication

IN PRAISE OF THE NEW EVE

THE MOTHER OF GOD AND THE DIGNITY OF WOMEN

For a tragically long time, men have neglected, exploited and abused women using the excuse that it was Eve who caused the Fall, and therefore, the “daughters of Eve” “have it coming to them”. Such a line of reasoning is not only abominable but also runs contrary to some of the fundamental tenets of our Holy Orthodox Faith.

First, Orthodoxy maintains that no one is guilty of a sin except the person who committed it. For example, in the Orthodox Church we do not accept the western teaching that baptism is a cleansing of the guilt of the Original Sin, since only those who committed the Original Sin can be guilty of it. It is our teaching that baptism is a liberation from the consequence of the Original Sin — the tyranny of death and sin in the world. Therefore, no one is guilty of Eve’s sin but Eve.

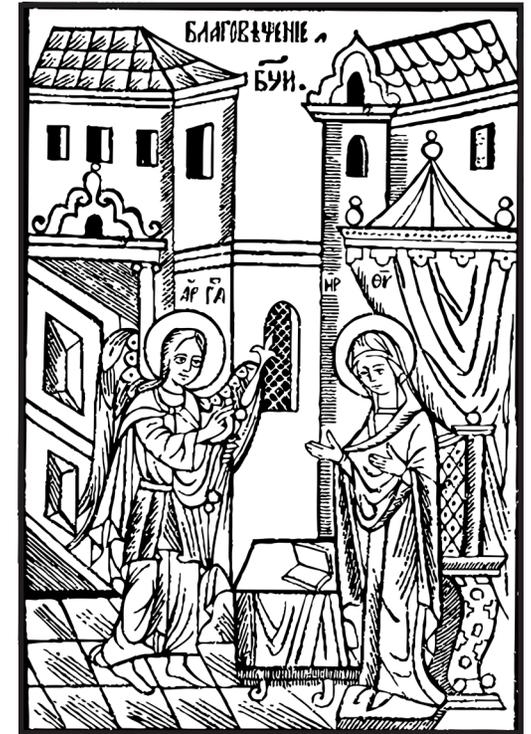

Second, we must keep in mind that Adam and Eve together represent the fullness of humanity. The Fall was not caused by Eve sinning, but by both Adam and Eve sinning. In fact, the Holy Fathers of the Orthodox Church point out that it was not even Adam and Eve sinning that caused the Fall; rather, their common unwillingness to take responsibility for their actions — that is, their unwillingness to repent — is what closes the gates of paradise to them.

Adam and Eve eat the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, and God asks them, “What happened?” Here, He gave them an opportunity to repent and ask for forgiveness for their transgression; instead, Adam blames Eve, and Eve blames the serpent. It is by Adam and Eve both being unwilling to take responsibility for their choice to transgress God’s sole commandment in Paradise that we end up in the chaos of this world.

The third point to be made against the “Eve-was-bad-therefore-all-women-are-bad” philosophy is that Eve is not the end of the spiritual legacy of “womankind”.

In Orthodoxy we teach that, as Christ is the “New Adam”, Mary, the Mother of God is the “New Eve”. In the same way that sin and death come into the world by the rebellion of both man and woman; sin and death are overcome in the world by the faithfulness of both man and woman. Thus, the hymns of the feast of the Annunciation speak of this holy day being the “beginning of our salvation” (Tropar of the Feast). It is by Mary willingly accepting her Divine calling to be the mother of the Messiah that the People of God see the gates of Paradise opening for them again — this is also the very reason that the icon of the Annunciation is on the Royal Doors of the ikonostasis.

If women are daughters of the first Eve (the first person to rebel against God), then they are also daughters of the Second Eve (the person in all of human history who is the greatest example of dedication to God).

“Let no profane hand touch the Living Ark of God, but let the lips of the faithful, singing ceaselessly to the Theotokos the words of the angel, cry aloud with joy: Rejoice, O Lady full of grace, the Lord is with You.”

—Irmos, Tone 4

